Advocacy Organizer Position

About PCUN:
PCUN is based in the heart of the Oregon Latinx community, and in one of the most vibrant agricultural areas in the state. Our mission is to empower farm workers and working Latinx families in Oregon by building community, increasing Latinx representation in elections, and policy advocacy on both the national and state levels. We continue to build an agenda that strengthens workers rights by creating safer workplaces, advocating for fair wages, and pushing for enough economic security to care for our families.

POSITION OVERVIEW
PCUN is seeking an experienced and energetic advocacy organizer to join our team. Our advocacy organizer will support and develop our Latinx small business program to build pro-worker, progressive, and Latinx immigrant small business advocacy - both on the national and local level. Ultimately, our advocacy organizer will work to create a space to build community, empower Latinx, immigrant and refugee, women-owned and rural small business owners around the civic process to change policy at the local and state level. Our advocacy organizer will also be in charge of educating, organizing and developing relationships and activists in the larger Latinx working community around PCUN’s advocacy agenda.

PCUN’s advocacy organizer must have an understanding of small Latinx entrepreneurship or have worked in/organized Latinx small businesses. Our organizer should have experience building strong and meaningful relationships, have spent time cultivating the leadership of community to advance policy change, be highly organized and self-motivated. The advocacy organizer will work under the supervision of PCUN’s political director.
